March 21 activities will include a presentation on Texas water law from Real County Judge Garry A. Merritt, on local water resources from Bandera County River Authority & Groundwater District GM Dave Mauk, and on local hydrogeology by geologist Feather Wilson. March 22 will be a full day of educational programming, demonstrations and exhibits. The educational program will be facilitated by Extension's Texas Watershed Steward and Texas Well Owner Network programs and include discussion of surface and groundwater systems, types and sources of pollution, ways to improve and protect water quality, and conservation strategies.
