

TEXAS STATE SOIL CONSERVATION BOARD

SECOND FLOOR FIRST STATE BANK BUILDING
TEMPLE

February 27, 1947.

The State Soil Conservation Board met in its Offices in Temple on February 27, 1947, with the following members present; C.M.Caraway, Chairman, J.P.Martin, Horace K. Fawcett, S.J.Payne and Walter W. Cardwell. Others present were, V.C.Marshall, Executive Director, Howard H. Goss, Chief of Engineering and planning, A.L.Liles, Executive Assistant, Paul H. Walser, State Soil Conservationist of the S.C.S and Roy Gough, Assistant State Soil Conservationist.

Public Hearings having been held in the Long Leaf Soil Conservation District (Tyler County), and in that portion of Fannin County, not now in a Soil Conservation District, for Annexation to the Collin County Soil Conservation District No. 535, the Board approved the need for the Organization of a District in Tyler County to be known as the Long Leaf Soil Conservation District and the annexation of that part of Fannin County not now in a Soil Conservation District and ordered that a referendum be held in these areas.

The Board then discussed progress of the work in many of the Soil Conservation Districts as well as legislation that had been introduced in the Legislative session now in progress at Austin. No definite action was taken on these matters.

Mr.V.C.Marshall discussed with the Board the holding of a meeting in each State District in connection with the awards to be made by the Fort Worth Press in its State wide educational campaign, to Soil Conservation Districts and individuals competing in various phases of Soil Conservation work. Said awards to be made later in the year. It was agreed by the Board that meetings would be held in State Districts as follows; District No.1, Plainview, District No.2, San Angelo; State District No.3, Corpus Christi; State District No.4, Nacogdoches; State District No.5, Cisco, and the final overall awards to be made in Fort Worth. Dates for these meetings to be arranged later.

All Board members agreed to attend all of these meetings if possible.

Adjournment was then had at 11 a.m.

Secretary.

Chairman
