

TEXAS STATE SOIL CONSERVATION BOARD

SECOND FLOOR DENMAN BUILDING
TEMPLE

Friday, August 29, 1952

The State Soil Conservation Board met at Fort Stockton, Texas, August 29, 1952 at 2:00 P.M.

Present were Mr. H. K. Fawcett, Chairman, S. J. Payne, E. W. Wehman and J. P. Martin, members. Others present were Henry Fox and V. C. Marshall.

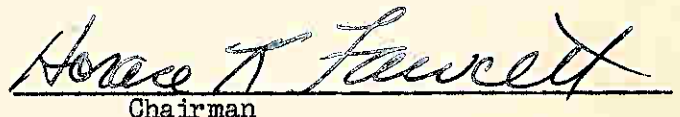

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. H. K. Fawcett, and on a motion by Mr. E. W. Wehman, it was ordered that the action of the Board at Tyler, Texas, designating Fort Worth, Texas as the meeting place for the Annual Meeting of District Supervisors in January, 1953 be amended by changing the designation to Mineral Wells, Texas, to be held on one of the following dates - January, 1953 - 15/16; 20/23; 29/30.

The need for and practicability of annexing additional territory to the Dallam County Soil Conservation District # 131 was signed and approved.

The Executive Director was instructed to write individuals and Soil Conservation District Boards of Supervisors expressing their appreciation for the courtesies and assistance extended during their tour of inspection West of the Pecos. The Board also expressed their pleasure and appreciation at progress being made by farm and ranch cooperators in the area visited.

At the meeting on a motion by Mr. Martin, with unanimous approval of the Board, it was ordered that the request of the Kaufman-Van Zandt Board be granted and that hereafter the District be known as Kaufman-Van Zandt Soil Conservation District No. 505, be it so recorded in the minutes of the Board, and the Supervisors of the Kaufman-Van Zandt Soil Conservation District be notified of the Board's action. It was further ordered that the Executive Director of the State Soil Conservation Board be instructed to notify the Secretary of State, State of Texas, of the Board's action and to request that a record of such a change be recorded in the files of the Office of the Secretary of State, deleting the original number of 407 previously assigned to the District and adopting the number 505, presently authorized by the Board.

After which, there being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:00 P.M.
